

“CCPA”

“California Consumer Privacy Act”

Privacy and Security Policy

Ingardia Bros. Produce has prided itself with the care of its customers as well as the information that they have provided us for the use of business.

Information examples stated below are only given in the act of willing and complying to buy merchandise from us or to sell it to us. The CCPA (California Consumer Privacy Act), which just came into effect in the beginning of 2020, deals with the use of consumer information, more detailed definitions of “personal information,” and new rights to the consumer in regard to the disclosure and use of their information. A business’ personal information is private and confidential to us as we are not in the business of selling or buying information. In compliance with the CCPA, we disclose the following information that we collect, information only given to us with the intent to do business with us.

- Business names
- Names of associates in businesses: Owner, Chef, Employees, etc
- Email addresses
- Address of Businesses
- Zip Codes
- Phone Numbers
- Fax Numbers
- Social Security Codes

For Uses in Transactions of Merchandise or Product

- Credit Card and Debit Card Numbers, Bank Accounts and Numbers
- Bank names associated with the Affiliated Businesses
- Bank addresses associated with the Affiliated Businesses

All personal information given is only with the intent of doing transactions with us in accordance with buying or selling merchandise. If businesses wish to cancel or cease its business with us, it is within their right to have their account closed and their personal information deleted with the requirement that all unpaid balances be paid in full upon requesting the closure or deletion of said account. Furthermore, data of transactions done with closed business will remain with Ingardia Bros. for five years for the sake of records, but all personal information will remain hidden and non-disclosed.

Ingardia Bros. Produce will continue to provide and protect its services and customers for the many years to come.